Believed That Commander of Seventy-First Will Be Chosen Next Saturday.

The movement to elect a brigadiergeneral for the Virginia volunteer military has aroused considerable interest in military circles. The officers of the three regiments, the Sevcers of the three regiments, the Seventieth, Seventy-first and Seventy-second, which are to be constituted the first brigade, have been ordered to meet in this city at 4 P. M. on Saturday, February 16th, to choose a brigadier.

Not since 1898 has the State had a brigadier-general, who was a field officer, the adjutant-general, however, having that rank on the staff of the Governor. It was just twelve years ago that General Alonzo L. Phillips was elected brigadier-general of the First Brigade, twelve years next Saturday. At that time he was licutenant-colonel of the old First Virginia Infantry, but there was a deadlock for some time over the honor, and it was broken by the election of the licutenant-colonel over the colonels of the State militia.

It is said that history may repeat itself, and that some other than the ranking colonel will be chosen.

It is said that history may repeat itself, and that some other than the ranking colonel will be chosen. Colonel R. F. Leidy, of the Seventy-second Regiment, is the ranking colonel, and Colonel C. C. Vaughan, Jr., of the Seventy-first, ranks next, Colonel William J. Perry, of the Seventy-first, ranks permitted ranking third haying been niteth ranking third haying been entleth, ranking third, having been the most recently commissioned. Colonel Perry succeeded Colonel Geo. Wayne Anderson, and Colonel Vaughan was elected to succeed Colonel A. M.

Was elected to succeed Colonel A. M. Higgins, deceased.

While there are no known aspirants for the honor, Colonel C. C. Vaughan and Colonel R. F. Leldy, who lives at Luray, have been mentioned for the honor. Colonel Leldy, by virtue of being ranking colonel, is the logical man for the place, if it goes by promoman for the place, if it goes by promotion.

Some time ago it was reported that a movement was on foot to create a Virginia brigade, but many opposed the plan. There is reason to suspect that the officers of the Seventleth Regiment in this city, and those of the Seventy-first, in and near Norfolk, favor a man from the eastern section of the State, rather than from the section in which Colonel Leddy resides.
Colonel Vaughan, of Franklin, commander of the Seventy-first, is a gentleman of culture and of considerable military experience, and is one of the most popular men in this portion of the State. His election as brigadier next Saturday is regarded as practically assured in advance.

ritt, of Kansas City, Mo., and Edward Duffy, of Baltimore, Md., for the defendants in error.

The following judges are in the city in attendance upon the court: Hon. Nathan Goff, of Clarksburg, W. Va.; Hon. J. C. Pritchard, of Asheville, N. C.; Hon. Thomas J. Morris, of Baltimore; Hon. William H. Brawley, of South Carolina; Hon. Edmund Waddill, Jr., of Richmond; Hon. Henry C. McDowell, of Lynchburg.

Hon. Henry C. McDowell, of Lynenburg. and Hon. Alston G. Dayton, of Philippl, W. Va.

There will be a conference session of the judges in chambers to-day.

COLLEGE MAGAZINE.

Current Issue of Messenger Devoted to Athletics.

The current number of the Messenger, the Richmond College magazine, just from press, is devoted to athleties in general, but in particular to the record of the football team of last season. The magazine contains much interesting matter. Of especial excellence are two articles—"Some Ideals in College Athletics," by Dr. W. S. McNeill, both of which contain food for thought for all college students who take part in athletics.

Another article is "The Story of the Season," which details the history of the Senson," which details the history of the football team of last season frankly, without trying to seek excuse for sames lost or boasting overmuch over victories won. "As Others Saw Us" gives at length quotations from various newspapers which discussed the work of the football team for last season. "Anecdotes of Our Famous Football Team" and "Pleasant Incidents Connected With the Senson," and a short poem by Mr. W. J. Young give the lighter side of college sport.

Young give the lighter side of cones, sport.

The issue is a very handsome one, and is illustrated with photographic cuts of the football team, Coach E. A. Dunlap, Jr., O. L. Bowen, captain of the '06 football team; O. R. Thraves, captain-elect of next year's team; O. M. Richardson, captain of this year's baseball team, and S. D. Gooch, captain of the track team. The credit for the issue is due to the excellent work of Mr. S. D. Martin, editor, and Mr. J. B. Woodward, Jr., business manager, and their associates.

Fined for Cruelty.

American Association Decides to Hold Session Here in December of 1903.

At the time of the Thomas Lectures here by Professor H. Morse Stephens, Richmond College invited the American Historical Association to meet here, Professor Stephens being a distinguished member of that body. It has now been learned that the association has definitely decided to assemble in Rich-mond in December of 1908. It is also probable that the American Political Science Association, and possibly other allied societies, will meet here at that time.

allied societies, will meet here at that time.

Dr. S. E. Woody, president of the Kentucky College of Medicine, Louisville, and secretary of the Kentucky Chapter of the Richmond College Alumni, announces that the annual banquat will be held in New Seelbach on February 13th. Rev. Dr. Carter Helm Jones will act as toastmaster. Richmond College has been allotted a space twenty-by-twelve feet in the College and University Building of the Jamestown Exposition for the display of objects of historical and educational importance, connected with the life of the college.

Alleged Bigamist Held. Alleged Bigamist Held.
David Steele (colored), charged with being a fugitive from justice from Ponnsylvania, was given thirty days in jail yesterday morning, during which time an investigation of the charge that he is a bigamist will be made. Two women appeared in court against him, each saying that she was his wife. One claimed to have been married to him in Pennsylvania, and the other in Rockhill, N. C.

Case Dismissed. L. Dwyer, a one-legged man, who claims to be an old Confederate soldier, was hated into the Police Court yesterday morning on the charge of striking Oille Olsen, a Swede, with a big stick, which he used in walking. The charge against Dwyer was dismissed, it being shown that he used the big stick in self-defense. Dwyer was defended by Attorney Harry C. Glenn.

President Will Make Appoint-ment Despite Protest of Longworth, His Son-in-Law.

worth, His Son-in-Law.

By WALTER EDWARD HARRIS.
WASHINGTON, D. C., February S.—
It is stated on reliable authority tonight that President Roosevelt told a caller to-day that it was his intention to appoint Raiph Tyler, a negro of Columbus, Ohlo, to the position of surveyor of the port of Clacinnati. Tyler resides in Columbus, a different district from the one in which the port of Cincinnati is located. The President has said that he proposed appointing Ohlo negroes, who were worthy to positions in his gift in the State, to show the Ohlo negroes that although he dismissed without honor the negro battalion which shot up the town of Brownsville, he was as much the friend of the race as is Senator Fornkar, who believes he is capturing the colored vote of the country for the Presidential nomination by defending the negro soldiers dischurged without honor. Three negro harbers of Ohlo have written the President for appointments since his announcement of intentichs respecting them. Representative Longworth has tried to convince his fatherin-law that it would sp'lt the Republican party in Ohlo to give the Cincinnati surveyorship to a negro, but
Mr. Roosevalt would not yield, it seems.

Burton Bill, Designed to Class Public Drunkenness as Crime, Causes Big Fight.

GONE TOO FAR ALREADY

Burton Says People Will Get Disgusted With Democratic

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., February 8.—In the Legislature to-day the House debated through the entire session except the time devoted to the introduction of time devoted to the introduction of bills, the bill by Parsons to equalize the number of challenges by the State and the defendants in criminal cases, and finally killed the bill by a roll-call ballot of 44 to 56.

Just before the adjournment in both the House and Senate notable bills, prepared by Speaker Justice, of the House, were introduced, entitld an act to provent unfair and unjust discrimination in freight rates and to correct abuses in the handling of freight. This bill was introduced in the House by Speaker Justice in person, and in the Senate by Senator Holt, who is his colleague from Guilford.

Decidedly the feature in the Senate was the fight made by Buxton, of Forsyth, and others against the Burton bill to make public drunkenness a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, including sentence to the roads. Buxton declared that the Democratic party had enacted the Wats and the Ward bill in the direction of temperance and voted special temperance legislation for many localities.

Gone Far Enough. The party had, he thought, already gone far enough, and this effort for legisla-tion as to individuals, and making still tion as to individuals, and making still further inronds on personal liberty, wis going entirely too far. If there was not a hait, the party responsible would be overthrown by a revulsion of public sentiment. The limit of this so-called temperance legislation was at hand. Quite a number of the other Democratic Senators reiterated the views of Mr. Buxton. The bill did not pass, being referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, where it will doubtless remain.

of 157,906 acros, will have 1,270 votes and $2,525,131 tax valuations.

County of Lee.

The joint Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns, in connection with the Legislature, has decided to report favorably the bill to create the county of Lee out of portions of Moore and Chatham counties, with Sanford-Jonesboro as the county seat. The bill provides that Lee county shall assume its proportion of the bonded indebtedness on Moore and Chatham counties, and that the Governor shall appoint the county officers, for Lee county until the next general election. The new county is designed to have an area of 157,906 acres, 1,270 voters, and includes textile property aggregating 32,625,131. There will probably be a fight on the floor of both branches of the assembly over the passage of the bill.

The Military Board appointed by Governor Glenn to prepare a revision of the North Carolina military laws, has about completed its work, and a, bill embodying the changes desired will be introduced in the assembly within a few days. It will ask a total State appropriation for military purposes of $25,000.

The Appropriations Committee of the House of Representatives voted last evening to allow a special appropriation of $5,000 for the exhibit by North Carolina negroes at the Jamestown Exposition.

MUCH SICKNESS.

MUCH SICKNESS.

Negroes Who Are Vicious When

Well Suffer When Sick.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

STODDERT, VA., February 8.—Tho whole face of the earth is wrapped in a mantle of ice. Mercury stood at eight degrees above zero yesterday morning. An abundant ice harvest is on hand. on hand.

There is a great deal of sickness and suffering among the negroes. Those who are industrious and energetic, of course, find friends among the white people when sickness comes, but the idle and victous suffer greatly.

setic. of course, in a rectangle somes, but the idle and ylclous suffer greatly. A great many negro men are leaving for the Tidewater rallroad, where they are carried to and from their work free of cost each week, and receive $1 or more per day. The female portion of the negro race are more anxious than usual to hire themselves, but prefer town location.

Mrs. Samuel F. Badgett very recently gave a most enjoyable silver social for the benefit of the Missionary Society. One of the most pleasant events of the afternoon was a recitation, in negro dialect by Professor R. L. Blanton. The professor was in his happiest trim, and delighted the friends of his boyhood in his old home.

WEAVERS STRIKE.

Demand Increase in Wages, and Not Getting It, Walk Out.

Not Getting It, Walk Uut.

[Specialite The Times-Dispatch.]

SALISBURY, N. C., February S.—
About forty weavers and machinists in the employ of the Salisbury cotton mills at this place walked out to-day, following a demand for an increase of two cents per cut in wages. This was not granted by the mills and the strike followed. The working of the mills are but slightly affected, and the management claims that the places of the strikers will be filled at once. The strikers claim to be satisfied with the conditions to-night.

TURPENTINE TRUST TO INVESTIGATE

SAVANNAH, GA., February 8.—Tha Federal grand jury for the Southren District of Georgia, has begun an inquiry into the methods of the so-called turpentino trust. Assistant District Attorney Alexander-Akerman presented a mass of decumentary evidence in sup-port of alleged violations of the Sher-man anti-trust law. In addition to this, a number of naval stores men of this city and Jacksonville were examined. It is expected the grand jury will report to-morrow.
